The Canadian Parliamentarians' Memorial Bursaries
of the
Canadian Association of Former Parliamentarians
Educational Foundation

Ten bursaries of $500 each are available to educators who:

- have been selected to attend the Teachers Institute on Canadian Parliamentary Democracy during the current year
- are unable to attend without financial assistance, and such assistance is not available from their school, school district, or professional association

Six Jack Ellis Teachers Institute Bursaries are available to Anglophone participants in the Teachers Institute meeting the above criteria.

Four Benoît Sauvageau Teachers Institute Bursaries are available to Francophone participants in the Teachers Institute meeting the above criteria.

Teachers are asked to complete the enclosed application form and to return it to:

Canadian Association of Former Parliamentarians
P.O. Box 1, 131 Queen Street
House of Commons
Ottawa, Ontario K1A 0A6

Fax: (613) 947-1764
Email: exparl@parl.gc.ca

Applications will be judged on four criteria: 1) the explanation and the extent of need for the bursary, 2) the explanation of efforts made to obtain funding from other sources, 3) the level of personal motivation and 4) the benefit to students and/or other teachers at the school.

The bursary will be sent directly to the teacher's school district following attendance at the Institute, and is intended to offset the cost of supply teaching.

Please direct any inquiries about the bursaries to the Canadian Association of Former Parliamentarians at 1-888-567-4764 or by e-mail at exparl@parl.gc.ca.
